DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In the amendment filed June 11, 2008, the following has occurred: Claims 1 and 12 have been amended. Claims 1-24 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
3. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weiss. A, (PGPub. No.: US 2002/0174031 A1).
4. As regards claims 1 and 12, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction for a first transaction amount in a first currency, between a first merchant and a first payment card holder, the method comprising the steps of:

a) creating a first payment card transaction record between the first merchant

Art Unit: 3696

and a second cardholder for the first transaction amount, [0066]

b) Creating a second payment card transaction record between a second merchant and the first cardholder, wherein the second transaction record identifies a second transaction amount in a second currency which equates to the first transaction amount converted into the second currency, [0067]

c) submitting the first transaction record and the second transaction record for processing as payment card transactions. [0069]

5. As regards claims 2 and 13, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 1, wherein the step of submitting the first transaction record and the second transaction record for processing comprises the step of submitting the first transaction record for processing as an unconverted payment transaction. [0055]

6. As regards claims 3 and 14, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 1, wherein the step of submitting the first transaction record and the second transaction record for processing comprises the step of submitting the second transaction record for processing as a converted payment transaction. [0055]

7. As regards claims 4 and 15, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 1, further comprising the steps of creating a third payment card transaction record between the second cardholder and the second merchant for an amount in the first currency, which is the negative equivalent of the first amount and submitting the third transaction for payment processing. [0016]
8. As regards claims 5 and 16, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 4, wherein the third transaction is submitted as an unconverted payment card transaction. [0016]
9. As regards claims 6 and 17, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 4, further comprising the initial step of determining whether a transaction is a dynamic currency convertible transaction prior to performing the steps of creating the one or more transaction records.[0014]
10. As regards claim 7, Weiss discloses a method for effecting the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 4, further comprising the step of posting the first and/or second and/or third transactions to the host computer system associated with an acquiring and/or multi-currency bank. [0068]

11. As regards claim 8, Weiss discloses a method according to claim 4, further comprising the step of creating a merchant additional revenue card transaction record between the second or a related cardholder and the first merchant, wherein the merchant additional revenue card transaction record identifies a transaction amount which equates to additional revenue to be settled to the first merchant in respect of performing at least one transaction using dynamic currency conversion. [0015]
12. As regards claims 9, 20 and 21, Weiss discloses a method according to claim 1, further comprising the step of creating a merchant additional revenue card transaction record between a cardholder account of the first merchant and the second merchant or an associated merchant thereof, the transaction record representing a refund which equates to additional revenue to be settled to the first merchant in respect of performing at least one transaction using dynamic currency conversion [0077]
13. As regards claims 10, 22 and 23, Weiss discloses a method according to claim 1, further comprising the step of creating a MBPMCSP card transaction record between the second or a related cardholder and a merchant associated with the

MBPMCSP, wherein the MBPMCSP transaction record identifies a transaction amount equating to the fees payable to the MBPMCSP for processing at least one dynamic currency transaction. [0077]

14. As regards claim 11, Weiss discloses a method according to claim 1, further comprising the step of creating a MBPMCSP card transaction record between a cardholder account of the MBPMCSP and the second (or an associated) merchant thereof, the transaction record representing a refund which equates to the fees payable to the MBPMCSP for processing at least one dynamic currency transaction. [0004]
15. As regards claim 18, Weiss discloses a system adapted to effect the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 12, wherein the system comprises a payment card terminal. [0014]
16. As regards claim 19, Weiss discloses a system adapted to effect the performance of a payment card transaction according to claim 12, wherein the system comprises an intermediate or other host computer system adapted to receive payment transaction records from a payment card terminal or other device and route them for processing as either converted or unconverted transactions. [0019]

Art Unit: 3696

17. As regards claim 24, Weiss discloses a computer program having code embodied therein which when implemented on a computer effects the methods of claims 1. [0014]

Response to Arguments

18. Applicant's arguments filed June 11, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The amended claims 1 and 12 , , specifically the limitations “whereby processing said first record credits said first merchant and said processing second record debits said first cardholder ” are anticipated by Weiss (0069).

Applicant submits that the step of 'create a first payment card transaction record between a first merchant a second cardholder' recited in amended claim 1 cannot be dissociated from the following recited step of 'creating a second payment card transaction record between a second merchant and the first cardholder.

Examiner cites Weiss paragraph [0070], “it is clear that various combinations of the components of the point-of-sale transaction system can be organized so as to provide interaction between cardholders 202, merchants 204, and multi-currency processors 218, and card issuers 224 in a variety of ways”. It should be clear that more than one card holder partakes in a single card transaction.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
